Verney Road
Winslow Buckingham

Property Description

On the popular Verney Road, this beautifully presented and thoughtfully extended three-bedroom semi-detached property is located in the sought-after market town of Winslow. Boasting a double-storey rear extension and a generous front porch, this home offers enhanced living space, modern finishes, and scope for further development with approved planning for an additional rear extension.

The property features a generous entrance porch leading to a convenient downstairs WC. To the rear, the double-storey extension has created a spacious and light-filled master bedroom, while the modernised family bathroom and en-suite reflect the improvements made in the rest of the home. Throughout the property, thorough redecoration has created a warm, contemporary feel ready for immediate occupation.

A standout feature of the home is the impressive south-facing rear garden, measuring approximately 100 feet long- ideal for families, keen gardeners, or those simply seeking outdoor space to relax and entertain. The property also benefits from off-road parking for multiple vehicles.

Situated in Winslow, this home enjoys the charm of a traditional market town while offering excellent transport links, including the imminent opening of the Winslow Train Station, providing direct services to Milton Keynes and Oxford via the East-West Rail line. The town itself offers a range of local amenities, good schools, cafés, and countryside walks, all within easy reach of Buckingham.
