Property Description

Presenting an exquisite historic gem, this Grade II listed property in Langley, Southampton, tells a tale of timeless elegance. Dating back to the early to mid-19th century, it's a masterpiece of architectural heritage. Crafted with yellow Beaulieu brick and crowned by a Welsh slate roof, its curb appeal is undeniable.

Aesthetically pleasing, the twelve-pane sash windows filter sunlight into the interiors, which are adorned with original 19th-century doors and shutters. The dining room boasts an ornate fireplace with a walnut-grained mantel, capturing the essence of yesteryears. A study and a butler's pantry with a charming brick bread oven add to the historic allure.

This property harmonizes the old and the modern, with a stone-floored laundry room, fireplaces in each of the 7 bedrooms, and a converted cellar showcasing its rich history. A workshop caters to creative pursuits, while the lush 0.5-acre landscaped gardens feature an orchard, kitchen garden, and sun terrace, setting the stage for outdoor gatherings.

Indulge in the grandeur of a library, drawing room, and dining room, each a testimony to classic sophistication. The potential for an annex and Airbnb usage adds versatility to the property. Centrally located, this residence epitomises grace, heritage, and potential, offering a rare opportunity to own a piece of history while enjoying modern comforts.
