Location

Langham Close is situated in the village of North Baddesley, Hampshire, within the SO52 9NT postcode area. North Baddesley is located approximately 5.37 miles northwest of Southampton city centre, offering a blend of suburban tranquillity with convenient access to urban amenities.

Langham Close is a quiet cul-de-sac comprising primarily semi-detached and detached houses, contributing to a peaceful residential environment. The area is predominantly owner-occupied, reflecting a stable and established community.

Residents benefit from proximity to local amenities, including a well-stocked convenience store within walking distance. The location also offers excellent transport links, with several bus stops nearby and Romsey train station approximately 2.3 miles away, providing connections to Southampton and beyond.

Families will appreciate the selection of reputable schools in the vicinity. North Baddesley Junior School and North Baddesley Infant School are both within a mile of the property, both rated 'Good' by Ofsted. For secondary education, The Mountbatten School, also rated 'Good', is approximately 1.1 miles away.

The area is characterised by a low crime rate, contributing to a safe and secure living environment. Additionally, the community has a high percentage of residents in managerial, administrative, and professional occupations, indicating a relatively affluent demographic.

Langham Close offers a desirable location that combines the charm of village life with the convenience of nearby urban centres, making it an attractive option for prospective homeowners.
