Property Description

Elizabeth Grove is a stunning, high specification, penthouse apartment with two bedrooms, allocated parking, contemporary style kitchen, underfloor heating throughout with controls accessible physically or through the cloud, and bespoke fitted wardrobes to the bedrooms. This modern private, gated development is set within leafy private grounds and the architecture is carefully crafted and timeless, blending with the established, tree-lined surroundings.

The apartment has a spacious open-plan living space with biofold doors opening onto two balconies, and is finished with a quality interior specification including a full range of integrated kitchen appliances. The master bedroom has a luxurious ensuite and a walk-in dressing room complete with hand-built bespoke fitted wardrobes. The second bedroom has hand built fitted wardrobes and the bathroom high end fittings.

The apartment benefits from allocated parking and is in close walking distance of Bushey Heath, which offers a range of shops, cafes and restaurants for day-to-day needs. A little further on, Bushey itself has a village feel, with its duck pond and green, also offering many independent shops and eateries. For a more extensive retail experience, Atria in Watford and Brent Cross offer a huge choice. The outdoors is easily accessible with open spaces such as Stanmore Common, Merry Hill and Bentley Priory Nature Reserve all close by, as well as several golf courses and country clubs.
