Property Description

This spacious 1930s bay-fronted semi-detached home offers generous living accommodation across two floors, with high ceilings and large bay windows that create a bright and welcoming atmosphere. The ground floor features an entrance porch and wide hallway leading to a generous living room, and an open-plan kitchen/diner finished to a high standard with integrated appliances. There is an extension to the rear with bi-fold doors opening to the rear garden. To the side elevation, there's a utility room, downstairs WC, and a large double bedroom that also works well as a home office or guest space.

Upstairs, the property offers four well-proportioned double bedrooms, including a bay-fronted main bedroom. Two of the bedrooms have been further enlarged with a side extension, enhancing the overall sense of space and flexibility. A modern family bathroom completes the upper floor, while a private driveway to the front provides ample off-street parking.

This property also features a rear lane as part of the title, accessible via security gate.

Located in a well-established South Bristol neighbourhood, the property benefits from excellent access to local amenities, green spaces, and well-regarded schools. Imperial Retail Park is just a four-minute drive away, offering a wide range of shopping options, while regular bus routes provide easy access to Bristol City Centre, Parson Street and Temple Meads stations, and major road connections including the M32, M5, and M4.
