Chelmondiston

Chelmondiston, and the adjacent hamlet of Pin Mill, lie on the south bank of the River Orwell, just five miles from Ipswich and lie within the Suffolk Coast and Heaths Area Of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village is charming and picturesque and offers a peaceful and welcoming environment.

The village boasts a variety of local amenities, with a village shop selling local produce, The Red Lion gastro pub and Hill Farm equestrian centre. The Royal Hospital and Ipswich High School are fee paying schools within close reach, and the village benefits from its own church of England Primary School just a short walk from the development. Closeby Pin Mill has a rich maritime history, is home to the well renowned riverside Butt & Oyster pub and also has a traditional working boat yard, local sailing club and access to deep water moorings.

Suffolk

Neighbouring villages Woolverstone and Shotley both offer marinas, with tidal and non-tidal berths. Woolverstone Marina which is set in 22 acres of glorious parkland overlooking the picturesque River Orwell. Shotley Marina which is situated at the meeting point of the Rivers Orwell and Stour. It has a great pub and restaurant, The Shipwreck, offering excellent food, and fantastic views.

Some local attractions to the area include The Suffolk food hall which is one of the best food venues in the UK for local produce, offers unparalleled views of the River Orwell and provides locally sourced produce, has a farm shop, café and a host of other activities. Alton Water reservoir, between Holbrook and Stutton, is filled with wildlife and offers a variety of activities for the whole family such as sailing, windsurfing, and routes for walking and cycling.

Ipswich, the county town of Suffolk, is a short 15 minute drive away and offers a variety of shopping and leisure facilities, such as theatres and gyms. The recently rejuvenated waterfront Marina boasts many contemporary restaurants, bars and cafes. Both Ipswich and Manningtree offer mainline railway stations with direct routes to London Liverpool Street, Norwich & Cambridge.
