Property Description

For anybody who cherishes a laid back life, away from the hustle and bustle of the big city, head to Henleaze. This area, situated in north Bristol, is extremely popular with all professionals from young solicitors to retired doctors, as it offers close proximity to the city and Bristol Temple Meads. Yet, Henleaze also provides a natural environment in which to relax. Henleaze also has the best properties for young families looking to situate themselves conveniently for the local schools. The area around Westbury Park, in particular, is popular as Westbury Park Primary school is nearby.

The accommodation in Henleaze has an impressive choice of 1930s semi-detached houses. Most of the homes have large gardens, perfect for play, sports and entertainment. However, the local vicinity also comes with plenty of leisure opportunities, with some spectacular parks and areas of natural beauty in the surrounding area. Henleaze Lake is a glorious spot in which to enjoy some wildlife and even go for a dip in warmer weather. The public parks in and around Henleaze include Quarry Park, Falldon Park, Canford Park and Redland Green. The Durdham Downs are also nearby and perfect for spending time relaxing with family and friends or going for a jog. The area is situated less than three miles from Bristol city centre, and is very well-serviced by regular buses to the centre and other local areas. It is also convenient for the M4, as well as several small rail stations .
