Henbury is a district that neighbours affluent Westbury-on-Trym. This area features a variety of property types, including social housing estates dating from the 1950s, ambling country lanes lined with country homes, and pleasant residential streets, all backdropped by the dense greenery of the famous Blaise Castle Estate, and gives itself over to the stunning Henbury Golf Course.

Families considering moving to the area will be interested in the good schools that Henbury boasts, and for wide-open spaces, you really cannot do much better than the Greenhill Plantation and grounds of the Blaise Estate – think rivers, woods, green meadows and designated play areas and you're in contented kids/parents heaven.

For commuters, the easy access to the M5 and city centre is a boon, and while Henbury may not have the widest choice of bars and restaurants for younger couples to choose from, it's only a short drive to Westbury-on-Trym and Clifton, and Cribbs Causeway is always a convenient option for retail therapy, grocery shopping, going to the cinema and dining out.
