Squire House High Street
Billericay

Property Description

A rare opportunity to own a property in this prime location with many additional benefits. This is a stunning one bedroom apartment based right in the centre of the vibrant Billericay high street and walking distance to the train station that has direct links into London Liverpool Street and Stratford.

This apartment is finished to a very high standard, once you are through the front door you are greeted with a well thought out property with an obvious attention to detail. The living space is open plan and would be great for entertaining, relaxing or cooking up a culinary delight in the modern kitchen that includes integrated appliances and a stylish breakfast bar. There is plenty of space for a separate dining table and corner sofa with plenty of light coming from the large front windows. The bedroom is a generous size with plenty of room for storage. The bathroom has a walk in shower and is finished to a very high standard.. Outside there is communal garden, this is unusual for a property on the high street and a very pleasant addition, there is a useful bike shed and the additional benefit of allocated parking in the car park at the rear of the property.

This is a fantastic property and would be ideal for a first time buyer or investor, viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all it has to offer.
