The Local Area:

The development is in the catchment area of a number of highly regarded schools. The Deerhurst and Apperley CofE Primary School in nearby Apperley accepts pupils aged from five- to-11-years-old and is ranked 'Outstanding' by Ofsted. Tewkesbury Secondary School is just a few miles away and

For everyday essentials or a quiet pint a local convenience store, farm shop and a pub, The Swan Inn, are just five minutes' walk away.

For the weekly grocery shop, a large Food Warehouse supermarket is just over three miles away at The Gallagher Shopping Park on the outskirts of Cheltenham.

A wide range of shops, restaurants, cafes and bars is available in Cheltenham itself, just over five miles away. Known locally as the 'Festival Town' Cheltenham is famous for its race course and its culture and nightlife, making it a popular all-round destination.

Slightly further away at just over seven miles via the A38 is Gloucester, with its impressive cathedral, historic docks and its own designer outlet at Gloucester Quays.
