Thanet Court Nailsworth Crescent
Merstham

You will find the location of the apartment just can't get any better. You benefit from being close by to the train station and Merstham's railway links get you up into London in just over 30 minutes. A short walk away is a parade of shops, perfect for topping up on the everyday essentials.

Set in a contemporary and modern building built in 2020, heading through the very well looked after communal foyer you will find a lift which services all floors within the block.

Internally the welcoming hallway leads you to the dual aspect open plan living and dining space which has French doors that open up to the balcony where outdoor furniture can be positioned and you can enjoy alfresco dining in the warmer months.

This room also incorporates a stylish kitchen which is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units into which appliances are integrated for you.

The principal suite here features a deep fitted wardrobe whilst the second bedroom offers complete versatility with space for a bed and for those of you that require a quiet space to work from there is also space for a desk and chair.

The bathroom is finished in a fresh white suite where you can kick start your day with an invigorating shower or soaking in the tub at the end of the busy day.

Externally there are ample parking bays for all the residents of Thanet Court to make use and a communal garden to the rear.
