

A unique and idyllic retreat nestled in the heart of South Merstham Village and its conservation area within short walking distance of the train station, village shops, excellent local schools and superb road links.

This elegant, locally listed cottage which really does offer everything that a character home should. The property is beautifully lit by natural daylight throughout, and the neutral colour scheme used throughout enhances the same.

The living room with a feature box bay window offers space for furnishings and a fireplace keeps it cosy in the colder months.

The conservatory addition creates a second area for sitting and relaxing and enjoys views across the gardens.

If you enjoy cooking then the kitchen certainly won't disappoint, the space has been well utilised with lots of storage cupboards and work top space. There is room for a large dining table and chairs which is perfect for socialising with your visiting guests.

Upstairs you'll find the main large double bedroom, which is fitted with a wardrobe, a second double bedroom and a fully tiled refitted shower room.

The garden is relatively low maintenance with pretty flower beds that you can tend to with your green fingers and there is a sizeable area of patio where you can position garden furniture, ideal for alfresco dining in the warmer months. An external store cupboard which houses the boiler will allow you to keep the garden tools tidied away.
