Property Description

Bordered by mature woodland this contemporary home is accessed via a winding private driveway giving an impressive approach. Finished to a high specification throughout, the property is arranged over three floors offering versatile accommodation and generously proportioned rooms. The ground floor is comprised of an open plan layout including a spacious lounge/diner with feature stone fireplace and bespoke kitchen finished with high end integrated appliances and quartz worktops. The first floor boasts three double bedrooms with bedroom two enjoying luxury ensuite shower facilities complete with ceramic tiling and chrome finishes. The main bathroom on this floor is also finished to the same high specification and includes a shower over bath. The top floor is devoted to an impressive principal suite. An opulent space affording a great degree of privacy it includes a dressing area and sizeable bathroom with free standing bath, walk in shower and twin vanity basins. To the outside the property benefits from ample private parking with lawn adjacent and multiple patio areas. The property also overlooks the central communal 'green' and the communal gardens offer seating areas to fully enjoy the idyllic setting.
