Property Description

This attractive semi-detached house is located in the sought-after town of Marlow, offering generous accommodation and a convenient setting. On approach, the property is fronted by a garage, with a driveway extending beyond to provide ample parking for several vehicles. A neat front garden further enhances the kerb appeal.

The side entrance leads into a practical kitchen, fitted with wall and base-level units, tiled flooring, and space for essential white goods. The spacious L-shaped living room creates a versatile family space, with double doors opening directly onto the front driveway. The ground floor also includes a well-sized main bedroom overlooking the rear garden, a study, and a bathroom complete with WC, wash hand basin, bathtub, and shower cubicle.

Upstairs, there are two additional bedrooms, both benefiting from fitted cupboards, along with a second bathroom featuring a WC, wash hand basin, and shower cubicle. The enclosed rear garden offers a private outdoor retreat, mainly laid to lawn and framed by mature shrubs and planting, making it ideal for both relaxation and entertaining.

Positioned on a quiet residential road with attractive rural views, this home combines tranquillity with convenience. It is within walking distance of Marlow's shops and restaurants, and just a short drive from the A404, providing easy access to the M40 and M4.
