New Chester Road, Wirral

A charming and spacious three double bedroom cottage set in the beautiful Port Sunlight conservation area.

Property Description

Nestled in the picturesque and sought-after village of Port Sunlight, this spacious and well-maintained end row property is a welcome addition to the local market. Port Sunlight is a model village originally constructed by Lever Brothers to accommodate its workforce but now is a declared conservation area that boasts 900 Grade II listed properties set in and around a plenitude of green open spaces. A delightful area to live yet within easy reach of local services and amenities.

Oozing charm and character the property was originally a four-bedroom home that now consists of a lawned front garden and pathway to the welcoming canopied entrance opening to the hall with oak flooring. A good-sized living room and a separate sitting / dining room allow for two entertaining rooms. The kitchen benefits from modern high gloss wall and base units with tiled splash backs, complementary work surfaces, and built in fridge and freezer. The kitchen gives access to the private rear courtyard garden with brick-built stores and double opening gates. Upstairs, you'll find three good sized bedrooms, all of which are doubles, ideal for family living. The bathroom, originally the fourth bedroom, boasts a large jacuzzi bath, a separate shower enclosure, a wash basin set on a white high gloss base unit and push flush WC. A further cloak area of the landing could serve as walk in wardrobe or additional toilet or shower dependant on your needs!

A viewing is advised!
