Property Description

Versatility is coupled with character in this truly incredible five-bedroom semi-detached house, which could be adapted to tick the most far-fetched boxes on your family's wish-list.

As well as beautiful open plan living space complete with a feature fireplace and exposed beams; a spacious kitchen with those attractive green cabinets and a very useful utility room attached; five equally elegant and generous double bedrooms and a light modern bathroom, it has both a converted loft and converted basement providing unique extra living space, or the potential for at least two more bedrooms if you are considering converting to an HMO!

With an enormous garage (with its own pit!) as well as permit parking and the option of turning part of the garden into a driveway this house really has so much scope to suit your needs, as well as benefitting from excellent transport links and local amenities and occupying a beautiful residential street of distinctive properties. Book a viewing today or risk missing out on the house you least expected to go to the top of your list!
