A stunning four-bedroom, two-reception room semi-detached house found on the popular Culham Drive with easy access to First Platt train station.

This property is beautifully presented throughout with an open-plan style living downstairs allowing plenty of living space of high standards, there is also a garage which could be converted into the house for extra space if needed.

Upstairs, there are four good-sized bedrooms which are all in great condition, as well as a newly fitted bathroom with a walk-in shower.

The loft is insulated with 30cm rockwool throughout and has a built-in storage area.

This property has a well-kept garden with a patio area perfect for outside seating as well as a grass area, and also benefits from a driveway and garage.
