The charming village of Woodcote is situated in the heart of southern Oxfordshire. Surrounded by the idyllic Chiltern countryside, the village has an active community, with amenities including a Co-op supermarket, convenience store, garden centre, public house and take-away restaurants. The village also has an excellent and medical surgery as well as a primary school and the well-respected Langtree secondary school. The centre of the village is centred around a large village green/cricket pitch and village hall with a large children's play park.

Woodcote is well connected with mainline railways stations at Pangbourne and Goring with direct access to London Paddington and the Elizabeth Line. The nearby market town of Wallingford (7 miles) has an excellent range of amenities including a Waitrose supermarket, independent shops, banks, restaurants, a monthly Farmer's market and other leisure facilities such as a thriving theatre and sports centre. The famous riverside town of Henley (10 miles) provide excellent shopping with a wide range of independent and national shops, recreation - including sport centre, rugby club and boating on the Thames, as well as access to both the M4 and M40 motorways.
