Outside

The property sits in delightful landscaped gardens of around an acre, the periphery of which is surrounded by mature hedging with an abundance of mature trees and fences, providing excellent screening from the roadway and pavement. The property is set well back at the end of a long driveway, accessed via timber gates, and with a stone retaining wall bordering the pavement. The driveway continues beyond the house to a gravelled parking and turning area adjacent to the former garage, now office and hobby room. In front of the house is a terraced garden leading down to a play area and sun terrace with a greenhouse. There are multiple secluded seating areas dotted around the house with a large rear barbecue terrace, private sun terrace, and other block paved and flagged seating areas. The sweeping lawn provides a wonderful play area.
