A highly desirable four bedroom family house, with large southwest facing garden and detached garage. Located in the Wimbledon Park primary school catchment area.

This charming property benefits from a superb extended kitchen/diner with sliding panoramic doors stretching across the rear wall, a separate reception room to the front, a downstairs cloakroom, three double bedrooms, a single bedroom and two bathrooms. Further benefits include excellent presentation and a wealth of character ready for entertaining.

The pretty, mature garden has a raised sandstone patio area and is laid to lawn with well-stocked borders and fruit trees, and the large garage offers rear access.

Brooklands Avenue is an attractive residential cul-de-sac which is located within close proximity of the coffee shops, bars and restaurants of both Earlsfield and Southfields. Transport links include Earlsfield mainline station and Southfields underground station (District Line).
