Set on the upper floors of an impressive period building is this spacious Maisonette overlooking Mortlake Green. The property benefits from flexible accommodation but is currently laid out with four bedrooms and two reception rooms. A partially open plan kitchen to the dining room also offers a rear facing Juliet balcony with French doors. Dividing doors separate the lounge and dining room, with front aspect lounge views onto Mortlake Green. Bedroom four could be used as an additional study or office space, again with an attractive front aspect view. A full flight of stairs from the landing to the top floor leading to three bedrooms (two double bedrooms) and a family bathroom. A loft hatch from the bathroom leads to a sizable loft offering additional storage and the possibility of conversion (STPP). The property is located within a close proximity to Mortlake train station servicing London Waterloo / Richmond and Sheen Lane's array of eateries and shopping facilities. NO ONWARD CHAIN
