Cedar Cottage, Cedar Cottage, Wiseton, Doncaster

Be the next PROUD OWNERS of this stunning semi detached Victorian cottage in the peaceful village of Wiseton. Built circa 1860 and sympathetically restored to its present high standard of accommodation. THREE bedrooms, PICTURESQUE gardens and GARAGE. Early viewing an absolute must!

Location

Wiseton is a small semi-rural village situated just off the A631 between Bawtry and Gainsborough in the county of Nottinghamshire. It has a rich local history, originally a country estate once owned by the aristocratic Spencer family. Flanked by the chesterfield canal, surrounded by countryside and beautiful architecture, this peaceful village is a hidden gem ready to enjoy.

The wider area offers a host of amenities, including schooling, health care and some popular public houses and restaurants.

Commuters will find easy access to transport links, with Retford train station around a 15 minute drive and offering a direct train to Londons Kings Cross in approximately 1 hr 30 min.
