NO CHAIN! A spacious detached bungalow in the popular Norfolk village of Northwold. Boasting a large wraparound plot, multiple reception rooms, conservatory, garage, workshop & mature gardens, viewing is highly recommended!

Summary

Occupying a generous plot in the ever-popular Norfolk village of Northwold, this detached bungalow offers an exceptional level of space and versatility, both inside and out.

Northwold is a charming and well-connected village, known for its strong sense of community and picturesque surroundings. Ideally situated for commuters and families alike, the property is within easy reach of Brandon and Downham Market, both offering a wide array of amenities and mainline rail connections to Cambridge, Norwich, and London King's Cross.

The bungalow sits centrally within sweeping, mature gardens, creating a wonderful sense of privacy and space. Inside, the accommodation is equally impressive-light-filled and well-proportioned throughout. A welcoming entrance hall leads into a cosy yet bright living room with a feature wood-burning stove, a well-appointed kitchen with integrated appliances, and a utility room with adjoining shower room for added convenience. A delightful conservatory offers further versatility as a hobby room, dining area or second reception space.

There are two double bedrooms, a study (which could serve as a third bedroom), and a modern family bathroom, all beautifully laid out to suit a variety of lifestyles.

Outside, the private, lawned garden wraps around the home and provides the perfect blank canvas for keen gardeners. A garage and separate workshop add valuable storage and functionality.

Early viewing is essential!
