This property is both light, spacious and well-presented throughout with huge potential for future extension and re-modelling subject to usual planning consent. Benefitting from a large westerly facing rear garden, private driveway and open-plan kitchen diner, this property is certainly not to be overlooked.

Upon approach this highly attractive semi-detached family home benefits from off-street parking and a mature front garden. Entering into the property there is a large welcoming hallway with access to the converted garage / office bedroom. There is a further large bay-fronted reception complete with wood burner and an addition of a downstairs WC and large second reception to the rear of the property looking out over a large west facing private rear garden.

Within this reception there are French doors to access to the rear garden and lovely herringbone flooring, continue further to the fully fitted kitchen diner with both side and rear access, a convenient breakfast bar and ample space for a full size dining table.

Continue to the second floor are a further three generous double bedrooms, all complimented with built-in storage and a large well-presented family bathroom completed with roll top bath and modern separate shower cubicle and a separate stand alone WC.

To conclude this property falls within the highly sought after Christchurch school catchment and lends itself to further expansion and improvement, this road is not a transient road.
