Located in a quiet mews style area close to transport, including tram and bus routes, with an array of shops to use from the close by Purley way thoroughfare. The property alights from a small communal hall leading to a large reception hallway and semi-galleried stairs to the first floor which has ample light flooding this area, 2 double bedrooms with the master having an en-suite, a large reception room leading to a fantastic terraced balcony which also alights from the master bedroom, a modern contemporary kitchen, double glazing and gas central heating. This share of freehold has low charges, which makes this a great first time buy or a downsizer looking for space and location, so is ready to occupy as there is no upward chain. Central London is approx. 30 minutes away and the M25 approx 25 minutes and the gleaming metropolis of Croydon looms large. There is an easy walking distance to take in the delights of the restaurant quarter, bars, clubs and culture at Fairfield Hall and the ever popular venue at Box Park.
