Brathway Road, London

A spacious end of terrace house, situated on a very popular but quiet residential road in Southfields measuring nearly 1,200 sqft.

The ground floor comprises two reception rooms maintaining a number of original features, a large kitchen to the rear with room for dining, a bathroom, and doors leading to the easy to maintain rear garden and garage. The first floor has three double bedrooms and an en-suite bathroom.

Brathway Road is ideally placed for access into Wandsworth town centre with the Southside shopping centre, bus routes and mainline train station. Southfields Village is also within easy access with its district line tube station, and King George's Park is literally at the end of the road with its various recreational facilities. The A3 is also close-by, providing fast access both in and out of London city centre. You can park with ease and are moments away from the shops and amenities of Merton Road.

Offered to the market with no chain an internal viewing is highly recommended.
