Turnpike Lane, Sutton

Presenting a unique opportunity for investment, this flat is now available for sale. While the property is in need of modernising, it offers a fantastic base to create an inviting and personalised space.

The flat features a reception room that is primed for transformation. Whether you envision a cosy living area or a sophisticated space for entertaining, the potential here is vast. Adjacent to the reception room, you will find a functional kitchen. Although basic, it provides a solid foundation for any desired upgrades, and the potential to turn it into a culinary haven is immense.

The property currently does not feature any bedroom spaces, making it an ideal prospect for those looking to design their own living areas from scratch. However, there is one bathroom available, which, like the rest of the flat, is ready for refurbishment to meet the buyer's tastes and requirements.

One of the key strengths of this property is its location. Situated in close proximity to local amenities, it offers convenient access to daily necessities, making it a sensible choice for those who value convenience.

A standout feature of the flat is its dedicated parking. This amenity adds a significant level of convenience, particularly in an urban location where parking can often be challenging to find.
