Rose Green Cottages, Colchester Road, Chappel

Delightful three bedroom mid-terraced cottage located in the picturesque village of Chappel. Kitchen/diner with hand built kitchen. Lounge with multi fuel stove. Garden room, south-west facing garden with stunning field views. Driveway for two vehicles.

Location

Chappel is a village in the borough of Colchester, Essex which sits on the River Colne. It is famous for its Victorian viaduct, which crosses the Colne valley. The village has a pub dating from the 13th century, a parish church, a United Reformed church, a post office and general store, village hall and a railway station, Chappel and Wakes Colne station, which houses the East Anglian Railway Museum. It also has a children's play area which was upgraded in 2007/08 by Chappel Parish Council.

The viaduct currently carries the Marks Tey to Sudbury branch railway (Gainsborough Line), which connects regularly with trains to and from London's Liverpool Street Station.
