A well-presented two bedroom home located in a popular growing development Oakleigh Green. The development is surrounded by picturesque green spaces and is less than a mile of Totteridge & Whetstone Underground Station, as well as all the local amenities of Whetstone High Street.

These homes are perfectly situated for balancing both a city lifestyle and suburban life. Residents can really enjoy a prime location while being close to excellent transport links, a range of cafes and great local restaurants.

This property benefits from a spacious kitchen-diner overlooking the rear garden and well-sized living area. On the first floor of the home there are two bedrooms and modern bathroom. Furthermore the property benefits from an allocated parking space.

The area is popular for having a number of local schools that cater for all ages. These include the Queenswell Infant & Nursery School, St John's Primary School, Scared Heart Primary School and the Woodhouse College which was rated outstanding in the last Ofsted report.
