Renovated and Refurbished to a High Standard >> Stunning Cottage in an Idyllic Village Setting with Two Reception Rooms, Two Bathrooms, Superb Kitchen and Utility Room, Ample Off-Road Parking and a Beautiful Wrap Around Garden. Be Quick to View This Charming Home!

Description

We are pleased to offer a stunning cottage in a picturesque village location. As you approach the Thuxton village sign and turn down the lane that leads to this impressive and attractive cottage, you are greeted by off road parking area which has a fenced pathway which leads passed the front and round to the side of the private entrance. The large lawned garden on two levels surrounds the cottage. The property has undergone extensive renovation and refurbishment by the current owners. Ground floor accommodation comprises an impressive entrance hall which could double as a study area. This opens into a spacious living room, with a wood burner set into an attractive fireplace. The modern, bespoke country style kitchen opens into a garden room on one side, and feeds round to a utility room which wraps back round to the entrance hall complementing the flow and style of the cottage. There is also a shower room downstairs. First Floor accommodation comprises a split staircase which offers two landings, one leads to two double bedrooms and the other has two double bedrooms and the modern family bathroom. Renovation and refurbishment works include a replaced roof with guarantee, a new boiler fitted in 2019 and a modern but characterful change to the flow, feel and style of this beautiful cottage. There is also an extra parking area which belongs to the cottage on the lane. With its charm, character, gardens and idyllic village setting, this property will appeal to a range of buyers!
