Location

Baconsthorpe is surrounded by unspoilt countryside and is located in close proximity of the award-winning market town of Holt as well as the seaside towns of Sheringham and Cromer. Baconsthorpe is home to the popular landmark Baconsthorpe Castle, which ruins back date to the early 15th Century. Holt is one of the most attractive towns in North Norfolk where you can find many art galleries, antique and book shops and places to eat located along the high street and tucked away in hidden, charming courtyards and alleyways. Bakers and Larners department store and Byfords are two landmark establishments in the town of Holt.
