2 ALMA TERRACE

TALBOT ROAD | HAWKHURST | KENT | TN18 4LZ

2 Alma Terrace is a pretty, mid terrace Victorian cottage presenting attractive brick elevations with burnt headers, set with predominantly multi paned timber framed windows beneath a pitched tiled roof. The character accommodation includes the sitting room with brick fireplace housing a wood burning stove on a raised tiled hearth, fitted meter and storage cupboards to either side, exposed wooden floorboards with aspect to front. The kitchen has fitted units and work surfaces with matching wood trim, an inset one and half bowl stainless steel sink unit with mixer tap over, integrated four burner gas hob with electric oven under and pull out filter hood over, space and electric point for fridge/freezer, space and plumbing for washing machine and an aspect to rear. From the rear lobby access to the bathroom, fitted with a white suite including close coupled wc, wash hand basin and a panel bath with mixer tap and shower over with part tiled surround.

Arranged over the first and second floor are three bedrooms incorporating two double rooms and one single/small double room. Access to bedroom three, set partially beneath eaves, is via an interconnecting rise of stairs from bedroom two. Bedroom one has an attractive brick fireplace and built-in wardrobe with an aspect to front. Bedroom three, is part vaulted with exposed brickwork, fitted wooden bed base and access to under eaves storage, a double aspect to front and rear, enjoying elevated views out across the rear garden, trees and fields beyond.

Outside, to front, a shared wrought iron pedestrian gate with pathway leads to the front door within an area of lawn, part bordered by low hedging. The rear garden is a fine feature extending to approximately 66ft x 24ft arranged over a gentle downward slope with established shrubs, a timber shed, outside water tap, enclosed by wooden panel fencing.
