You need to be a working professional as all current occupants are full-time working. Current tenants are all female. This is a superb single occupancy accommodation for professional people in a renovated house. The property has been done to a high standard and we have an industrial theme throughout. The property is situated in the heart of Bearwood. The house is within a short walking distance to bus transport links and is a short distance to the city centre. The local area is also well-catered for with shops, cafes, bars and an Aldi supermarket. There are nearby green spaces.

Bathroom

There are two ensuite rooms and a shared bathroom for the three other bedrooms. These have again been designed to a high standard with bespoke
