SITUATION

Blackheath is a picturesque village and one of the smallest in Surrey, situated around 4-miles south-east of Guildford and within the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), offering miles of walking, cycling and riding country. The village is surrounded by open heathland, much of which is Common land, and lies within the Surrey Hills National Landscape and part of Blackheath Common is a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI). There is a village hall and cricket club, Barnett Hill hotel whilst the largest property in the village is St Augustine's Abbey, home to a community of Roman Catholic Benedictine monks. Nearby amenities in neighbouring villages, Chilworth and Albury, include a village shop, post office and general store, The Percy Arms gastropub and The Drummond at Albury. The nearest railway station is close by in Chilworth, which runs between Guildford and Dorking on the Reading to Gatwick Airport line. More comprehensive facilities can be found in Guildford town centre with its comprehensive range of shopping, social, recreational and educational facilities. There is an excellent number of both state and private schools in the locality, serving all age groups.
