THE PROPERTY

A detached Grade II Listed building, currently arranged as seven flats. The property is in need of complete modernisation and improvement and allows scope for re-development, subject to the gaining of satisfactory planning consent.

The property was built around 1800 of brick and flint elevations under a slate covered roof and benefits from a range of garages and communal gardens. The property has suffered from extensive damp penetration causing fungal spread across the entire ground floor walls, ceilings, floors and staircase. It is in need of complete modernisation throughout.

The property is located in East Horsley village with a local parade of shops providing excellent day-to-day amenities, including cafe's, restaurants and The Duke of Wellington pub whilst being nearby to Horsley railway station connecting with Guildford and London Waterloo.

THE GROUNDS

The communal grounds are mostly laid to level lawn with garages in a block.

SITUATION

East Horsley is a Surrey village, situated between Leatherhead and Guildford. There is a superb parade of shops providing an excellent range of shops and business services catering for day-to day needs including an award-winning family butcher, F Conisbee & Son, a bakers, Budgens store, post office and general store, deli, café's, wine shop, Lloyds bank, La Meridiana Italian restaurant, Indian & Chinese takeaways, The Duke of Wellington pub, two hotels, hairdressers, barbers, pharmacy and a vets practice. There is also a railway station, which runs between Guildford and London Waterloo. The A3 & A31 provide access to the South Coast and the M25 to central London & international airports. There is a wide range of excellent schooling within the area in both the state and private sectors. The county town of Guildford is approximately 7 miles away offering a range of shopping, social, recreational and educational facilities, whilst the cosmopolitan village of Cobham is close by with its vibrant range of shops and restaurants.
