THE PROPERTY

Perfectly located between Wey Hill and Old Haslemere town there is equidistant access to local shops and services with a varied entertainment scene including outdoor/indoor recreational opportunities for most.

Being a modern purpose-built apartment there is the benefit of an open plan arrangement, a good energy performance rating and the flexibility/control of electric heating.

From the apartment the rear view overlooks the communal garden which is mostly laid to lawn and privately set within a mature planted backdrop. To the front there is parking for guests and into the communal hallway there is the option of either the lift or stairs that access all levels.
