C&D Rural are proud to offer this unique opportunity to acquire a 19th Century Category B listed former tollhouse situated on the Scottish/English Border. The property features an attractive stonework exterior with spacious accommodation internally and benefits from off-road parking and a large garden with exemplary views of the Esk Valley. The Old Toll Booth has been competitively priced compared to the Home Report valuation of £260,000 and has accommodation briefly comprising: Living room, kitchen/diner, former kitchen, conservatory, two double bedrooms, shower room and utility cupboard.

The Accommodation

The front door welcomes a spacious porch with wall panelling, radiator and tiled flooring with a door leading into the living room. The living room features a woodburning stove set on a slate hearth, large bay window to the front with single glazed traditional sash and door through to the kitchen/dining room. The kitchen is modern, complete with integrated electric oven, grey fitted cabinets with marble effect counter-top, white tile splashback, space for white goods, wood effect laminate flooring and archway through to the original kitchen which is fitted with single bowl drainer sink with mixer tap.

There is ample space for dining and glass door through to the conservatory/sun room providing access to the garden. The property features two generous sized double bedrooms with good quality carpets and radiators in each room. The shower room located at the end of the hallway is complete with a large, walk-in shower cubicle with electric shower and sliding glass door, WC with adjoining wash hand basin and cabinet, wall mounted touch screen LED mirror, and walls lined with waterproof shower boarding for easy maintenance.

The property benefits from oil fired central heating and has recently been decorated throughout.

Externally, there is vehicular access from the main road providing parking for several vehicles. The property boundary is well fenced and protected by a variety of mature trees and on the South side of the property there is a large, open garden offering new purchasers scope to create a beautiful and imaginative outdoor space.
