The Property

The property offered for sale is an attractive character home, superbly located in a peaceful area yet only a very short walk from Holt town centre. Constructed in 1999 by renowned local builders Character Homes Ltd, the accommodation offered is in excellent order throughout and comprises an entrance hall, a sitting room with a wood burner and double doors leading to a garden room, a well fitted-out kitchen and a cloakroom. On the first floor there is a master bedroom with an en suite shower room and two further bedrooms and a bathroom. The property also benefits from gas fired central heating, sealed unit double glazing, internal cottage-style wooden latch doors and coving. Outside there is a brick and tile garage and two parking spaces. To the rear of the property is a very private and attractive enclosed garden. The property has no onward chain.

Location

The town of Holt was first mentioned in the Domesday Book (1086) when it was credited with five water mills, a market and its own Port of Cley, which was attached to the Holt Manor. In 1708 the great fire of Holt destroyed much of the town centre, which accounts for the Georgian architecture found in the town today. The centre of the town comprises mainly individual shops and businesses where a friendly and personal service still remains. The North Norfolk coastline is about four miles distant with Salthouse, Cley, Blakeney and Morston all within easy reach. The county city of Norwich is just over twenty miles away from where there is a fast rail service to London Liverpool Street and an international airport.
