The Property

The property offered for sale is a substantial detached village house in the lee of the village church. In addition to the main dwelling there is a two bedroom detached cottage and a substantial flint and brick barn. The main house has accommodation comprising an entrance hall, a sitting room, dining room, drawing room, study/bedroom, hall, kitchen/diner, utility room, boot room and a walk-in pantry. On the first floor, a landing leads to five bedrooms (master en suite) and a shower room. The property has a wealth of character features to include pine stripped doors, pantile floors, period fireplaces and exposed beams and enjoys the benefit of oil fired central heating throughout. The house is set in wonderful grounds of about one acre and comprise a gravelled parking area with a five bar wooden gate leading to a paddock. Also within the grounds there is a very useful flint and brick under a pantile roof barn and a detached red brick two bedroom cottage.

Location

Thornage is a pretty rural village around three miles from the market town of Holt. The town of Holt comprises mainly of individual shops and businesses where a friendly and personal service still remains. The town is also home to Gresham's Public School. The North Norfolk coast is around four miles distant with Cley, Blakeney and Morston all within easy reach. The County City of Norwich is just over twenty miles away from where there is a fast rail service to London Liverpool Street and Norwich Airport has direct flights to many major cities.

Directions

From Holt High Street proceed to the Norwich Road and at the roundabout take the third exit where signposted to Dereham. After around three miles you will enter the village of Thornage. Proceed through the village and in the centre you will find Ivy House situated on your left hand side opposite the village church identified by a Pointens for sale board.
