LOCATION

The pretty, unspoilt coastal village of Weybourne is situated on the North Norfolk coast which is designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and is renowned for its spectacular coastline, fantastic wildlife, miles of glorious beaches, seaside communities and a beautiful hinterland of rolling countryside and picturesque market towns and villages. The village has a good range of amenities to include a recently refurbished Village Store and Café, an active village hall and the popular public house, The Ship Inn. The Pheasant Hotel is close by in the village of Kelling. Beach Road gives access to the shingled beach and its popular clifftop walks and the coastal path. Three miles to the south is the Georgian market town of Holt, the centre of which comprises mainly individual shops and businesses where a friendly and personal service still remains. The town is also home to Gresham's Public Schools. The county city of Norwich is around twenty miles away from where there is a fast rail service to London (Liverpool Street) and an international airport via Schipol (Amsterdam).
