The Property

The property offered for sale is a double fronted period house situated in an enviable location and within the lee of Cley Windmill. The property is in very good condition throughout and has deceptively spacious accommodation which briefly comprises of a large sitting room which has an open fireplace with a wood burner, a well fitted out kitchen/diner. Utility room and a cloakroom. On the first floor a landing leads to four double bedrooms, a bathroom, and a separate cloakroom. The property also has the benefit of gas fired central heating. Outside to the rear of the property there is a south facing courtyard garden and allocated off street parking. There is no onward chain.

Location

Cley Next The Sea was described by William White in his 1845 Norfolk directory as a "small town and port" and listed 4 inns, 2 beer houses, 3 each of bakers, butchers, groceries, drapers, shoemakers and also 4 tailors. 150 years on, the village still has a delicatessen, hotel, pub, tearooms, fish smokery, pottery shop and gallery. St Margaret's Church looks over the green and the Glaven valley and probably the best known feature of the village is the windmill which was built as a corn mill at the beginning of the 19th Century and is now run as a very pleasant bed and breakfast establishment. The Georgian town of Holt is about 4 miles away with an excellent selection of individual shops and also the well-known Gresham's Public School. The fine City of Norwich is about 26 miles away.

Directions

Leave Holt via New Street which will take you onto the Cley Road. After around 4 miles you will enter the village of Cley next the Sea. Proceed into the village going past the village green on your left and the Three Swallows public house on your right. At the T junction in the centre of the village, turn right. Worthington House will then be found on the right hand side just after the George pub.
