If you're looking for a comfortable, modern home where your family can really settle in, this one is well worth a look. Previously our client's own home, it's been lovingly cared for and is ideal for family life.

Downstairs you'll find a bright, good-sized living room and a large kitchen/diner/family space that opens straight out onto a delightful garden — perfect for kids, entertaining, or simply enjoying some outdoor time. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms (one with an en-suite) plus a spacious family bathroom, giving everyone room to breathe.

Homes like this don't come up often in the Hanham/Kingswood area — book a viewing and come see why this could be the perfect place for your family.
