Guide Price £410,000

Detached bungalow enjoying a tucked away setting boasting large gardens within the pretty village of Hinderclay.

Understood to have been built about 60 years ago, this individual detached bungalow enjoys a delightful setting standing within generous gardens providing a high degree of privacy, whilst situated within the heart of this pretty Suffolk village.

The property offers further potential to remodel/extend if desired and the light and airy accommodation currently in brief comprises of an entrance hall with cloaks cupboard and door to cloakroom. The dining room is an ideal space for entertaining with window to rear and cupboard containing the central heating boiler. From the dining room leads through to the spacious sitting room with fireplace and windows to front and side aspects.

An inner hall area has further built-in cupboards and leads to the shower room and to the kitchen breakfast room, which is fitted with a range of units providing plenty of drawer and cupboard space with windows to both rear and side and a door to the garden.

The four bedrooms are served by a bathroom, completing the accommodation.

Outside

The bungalow is approached down a long shared private drive leading to the front of the property and to an area providing off road vehicle parking and access to a detached single garage. The gardens are a particular feature being stocked with numerous mature trees, shrubs and flowering plants. The gardens are mostly laid to lawn, are bordered on one side by a mature hedge and traditional picket fencing bordering The Street.

Location

The bungalow enjoys a delightful setting set back from The Street down a private shared driveway whilst situated close to the centre of the village. Hinderclay offers a lovely assortment of many period and modern properties lying within close proximity to the popular villages of Redgrave, Rickingham and Botesdale, with the latter having a good range of amenities and facilities including doctors surgery, schooling, supermarket and transport links to the market town of Diss which has the benefit of a mainline railway station with regular/direct services to London Liverpool Street and Norwich.
