Outside

The house is approached along a driveway providing extensive vehicle parking for up to 8 cars and access to the detached double garaging. The "wrap around" gardens are a delightful feature being thoughtfully landscaped and stocked with an abundance of flowering plants, shrubs and various mature trees. The gardens provide an excellent degree of privacy, are bordered by a small stream and a large stone paved terrace, creates an ideal area for outdoor entertaining and al-fresco dining whilst enjoying the west facing aspect.

Location

The house enjoys a delightful elevated setting located in the centre of this highly sought-after conservation village. Rattlesden village lies in a sweeping valley between the market towns of Bury St Edmunds and Stowmarket. Unusually for the county of Suffolk, this portion is decidedly hilly. There is a strong community spirit within the village which is evident in the church, chapel, two pubs, playing/sports field with marvelous pavilion and numerous organisations. The Post Office and village shop which is run by volunteers, is yet another example of the dedication and enthusiasm of village residents. Rattlesden retains such character and warmth thus making this rural parish a little gem.
