A charming 16th century 3 bedroom town house enjoying a prominent setting close to the Abbey Gardens and town centre.

Thought to have been built in the early 16th century of traditional timber frame construction beneath a tiled roof and listed grade II as being of particular historical and architectural interest, this charming period town house retains original features including exposed beams, period fireplaces and sash windows.

Benefitting from gas fired radiator central heating, the accommodation is offered with no onward chain and currently in brief comprises a panelled entrance door opening to the entrance hall with stairs off to first floor and door to the light and airy sitting room with period fireplace and large sash window to front. The dining room is an ideal reception room for entertaining with fireplace surround and fitted cupboards. A pair of traditional French doors open to the rear gardens. The kitchen is fitted with a somewhat dated range of units with space for appliances, door to garden and stairs to cellar.

On the first floor is a landing leading to the two spacious bedrooms and recently remodeled wet room. Stairs continue from the landing to the second floor bedroom completing the accommodation.

Outside

To the rear of the house is a walled west facing town garden being mostly paved with raised well stocked flower beds and providing the occupants with a good degree of privacy.
