Guide Price £215,000

A charming 16th century 2 bedroom town house enjoying a prominent setting close to the Abbey Gardens and town centre.

Thought to have been built in the early 16th century of traditional timber frame construction beneath a tiled roof and listed grade II as being of particular historical and architectural interest, this charming period town house retains original features including exposed beams, period fireplace and sash windows.

Benefitting from gas fired radiator central heating, the accommodation is offered with no onward chain and currently in brief comprises a panelled entrance door to an entrance hall with door to a charming sitting room with Inglenook fireplace with stove and stairs off to first floor. The long narrow kitchen has fitted units, gas fired boiler and door to rear. On the first floor is a large bedroom and bathroom and on the second floor, a further double bedroom with large fitted cupboard.

Location

The property is perfectly situated in a prime location in the historic town centre. It is close to well-regarded schools and sports facilities, and uniquely independent shops (as well as well known high street stores, and includes a Waitrose supermarket and Marks and Spencer food hall just a short walk away as well as the beautiful parks, cinemas, theatres and restaurants for which the town is famously known as the 'jewel in the crown of Suffolk'. The apartment is close to everything that gives Bury its distinct reputation for bringing together the best of old and new, with its rich history and its broad range of venues for dining, shopping and relaxing. These include an impressive fresh produce market every Wednesday and Saturday. The town is renowned for its beautiful Cathedral and for the leafy and floral Abbey Gardens with its impressive medieval ruins, all just a short stroll down from the colourful boutiques and cafe culture of the town centre.

It is easy to see why people want to settle in Bury and make it their home. This property is close to the excellent rail and road networks which make London and Cambridge easily commutable, along with giving access to the fine range of town, country and coastal destinations of East Anglia. Additionally, for international destinations, Stansted Airport is only about an hour's door-to-door journey from the house.
