Substantial 3100 sqft home enjoying one of the best settings in Ixworth. All in just under one acre (s.t.s).

Built approximately sixty years ago and extended in more recent years, this impressive individual family home provides a substantial level of particularly versatile accommodation complemented by large private grounds and an outstanding setting, enjoying stunning church views within this hidden location in the heart of Ixworth.

The accommodation currently in brief comprises an entrance porch and entrance hall with stairs off to first floor and door to the cloakroom. The kitchen/dining room is fitted with an extensive range of units providing plenty of drawer and cupboard space with built in range cooker, which is a combination electric and gas and with door to the separate utility room and French doors to the conservatory, enjoying views across the rear gardens. The sitting room is a comfortable reception with multifuel stove and French doors to the rear gardens. The study/snug, is a versatile reception with bay window to front. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a large principal bedroom suite comprising main bedroom area with French doors to gardens, dressing room and large en-suite.

On the first floor is a spacious landing with library area and leading to the four bedrooms enjoying terrific views of the grounds. The largest of the four bedrooms is complemented by an en-suite shower and the three remaining bedrooms are served by the family bathroom, completing the first floor accommodation.

Outside

The property is approached along a sweeping shingle driveway, bordered by extensive areas of lawn and well stocked flowerbeds. The driveway leads to the front and side of the property providing extensive vehicle parking, turning space and access to the adjoining garaging.

The grounds are an outstanding feature of the house and extend in all to approximately 0.9 of an acre, comprising large lawned gardens, bordered by and interspersed with a variety of mature shrubs and trees. The grounds extend into a small wooded area and are bordered by magnificent trees. The gardens provide an excellent degree of privacy and enjoy the backdrop of the village church.

To the front of the property there is an area of 14 heavily cropping small fruit trees laid out alongside the drive. To the front of the property the area has been seeded with wildflowers and allowed to grow wild until June each year. It is then mown.

Location

The property enjoys arguably one of the best settings in Ixworth, situated in a totally private yet central village setting, with the backdrop of the historic village church.

Ixworth is an attractive and thriving Suffolk village offering a range of local facilities rarely found in a village of today, including a doctors surgery, shop, two public houses, two Churches, primary school and a free-school. Within 7 miles is the picturesque, thriving market town of Bury St Edmunds which brings together the old and the new. The town boasts a great collection of venues for eating, drinking, shopping, and relaxing, making it a great place to live, work, visit and study.

Bury St Edmunds, with its impressive market every Wednesday and Saturday, is nestled in the heart of Suffolk and arguably the crown of East Anglia. It is known for the Abbey Gardens, a ruined abbey right in the town centre. Bury is a very popular destination for locals and tourists to the area. Visit the old side of the town to see the Cathedral in all its glory, the medieval quarter of the town and the Abbey Gardens itself, or browse the newer side of the town to discover its large assortment of shops, restaurants and entertainment centres.
