Offers Over £350,000

Charming well presented detached brick and flint cottage with large gardens situated in the heart of Old Thurston village. All in about .2 of an acre.

Understood to have been built in the 19th century and extended and updated in more recent years, this pretty detached period cottage, offers particularly well presented and maintained accommodation complemented by a surprising garden extending to approximately .2 of an acre. The cottage provides further potential for extension/development (subject to the relevant planning permissions being approved) and the accommodation currently in brief comprises an entrance door opening to a comfortable sitting room with windows overlooking the gardens, a fireplace with stove and stairs off to first floor. An inner hall has a cupboard with gas fired boiler and leads to the triple aspect kitchen dining room, fitted with a range of units and built in appliances. This light and airy space has a vaulted ceiling with exposed timbers and French doors opening to the rear gardens. A bathroom with white suite completes the ground floor accommodation. On the first floor are two bedrooms overlooking the gardens.

Outside

The property is approached along a driveway providing off road vehicle parking and access to a detached garage. The gardens are a surprising and particular feature of the house, providing the occupants with a good degree of privacy and extending in all to approximately .2 of an acre. The gardens are mostly laid to lawn with mature hedge borders and various mature trees. Within the garden is an original well and a terrace is an ideal area for outdoor entertaining and al-fresco dining.

Location

The property enjoys a delightful setting within the original heart of the village. Thurston is a popular and well-served village with amenities including a well-regarded primary school and community college, Co-op shop, post office, pharmacy, garage, rail station and two public houses. The village is situated within 5 miles of the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds and provides excellent access to the A14 Dual Carriageway, linking to Cambridge and London via the M11 Motorway. The nearby market town of Stowmarket has a main line rail link to London Liverpool Street Station.
