LOCATION

Little Missenden is the quintessential English village, used on numerous occasions for filming (e.g. Midsomer Murders and The Dam Busters). The 10th century church is often host to the annual Festival of Music and Arts and there are two popular pubs. There is also a highly-regarded primary school/nursery and village hall. A wide choice of restaurants, pubs and shops can be found in Amersham (2.5 miles,) and Great Missenden (just over 2 miles). Fast trains run from both Amersham and Great Missenden to London Marylebone. Amersham also offers the option of Metropolitan Line tubes directly into the City.

DIRECTIONS

From our offices in Great Missenden take the A413 towards Amersham. Take the first main turning on the right after the railway bridge into Little Missenden and Highmore Cottages can be found 3/4 mile along on the right.
