

64 Main Road, Naphill, Buckinghamshire, HP14 4QB

An individual, 1940's bay fronted detached property, situated in the popular village of Naphill. The house has a very traditional feeling and layout and could benefit from some general updating with potential to extend subject to planning permission.

| Storm Porch | Entrance hall | Living Room | Kitchen/Diner | Utility Area | Three Bedrooms | Family Bathroom | Front Garden | Driveway | Garage | Rear Gardens |

Located in the ever popular village of Naphill is this charming, 1940's bay fronted detached home. Offered to the market with no onward chain, the property has been lovingly maintained by the family but would now benefit from a degree of updating and offers potential to extend subject to planning permission.

Accessed via a welcoming entrance hall, to the front of the property is a good size living room with feature brick fireplace and bay window. To the rear is an open plan kitchen/diner with utility area and patio doors lead to the garden. It wouldn't take much to transform this space into a contemporary eat in kitchen with breakfast island.

Upstairs are three bedrooms, with the main bedroom enjoying a rear, double aspect over the garden and open countryside beyond. Another excellent size double bedroom is to the front along with a single bedroom, ideal for a nursery or home office. The modern family bathroom comprises a walk in corner shower, sink and wc.

A particular feature of the property are the pretty and generous gardens. To the front, enclosed by mature hedging is a pretty garden with an area of lawn, beautiful mature shrubs and planting, framing the pathway to the front door. To the rear, the garden offers a level area with large patio area and lawn enclosed by mature trees and fencing and borders stunning open fields at the back. A driveway to the side leads to a garage

This wonderful, period property is a great opportunity for someone to put their own stamp on a detached property in the picturesque village of Naphill.
